The number 112 carries with it some considerable symbology, not only is it the inverse/mirror of the number 211, it hides a much deeper meaning.

One major clue is its mystery is the number 47, which connects to YHWH, also named the Tetragrammaton. The importance of this number is encoded within the angle of the compass found on the Freemason logo, as it is angled precisely at 47°.

The number 112 is also heavily connected to the Catholic Church, the Vatican, and more specifically the Jesuits, as seen below. They claim to be spread worldwide in 112 countries.

Let's begin and decode, to discover its hidden secrets!

In John 21:11, the 153 fish Peter caught is a possible mathematical reference to a geometric construction called the vesica piscis, which is Latin for "bladder of a fish." The vesica piscis is the shape formed by the intersection of two overlapping circles of equal diameter. The perimeter of one circle passes directly through the center of the other circle, creating a fish-like segment in the center, shown in Figure 1. The ratio of the height to the width of the vesica piscis is the square root of three ($\sqrt{3}$). The ratio 265/153 is the smallest whole numbers that accurately approximate the square root of three. Figure 2 illustrates the relationship between 153 and the vesica piscis.

John 21:11

Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three; and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

Now around the Pentagon are two circles, one touching the tip of the points of the star and one outside. The five Hebrew letters on the outside of the points of symbol spell out Leviathan, referring to one of the great beasts of Hebrew mythology.

Target Students and staff at Sandy Hook Elementary School

The Sandy Hook Elementary School shooting was a mass shooting that occurred on December 14, 2012, in Newtown, Connecticut, United States, when 20-year-old Adam Lanza shot and killed 26 people. Twenty of the victims were children between six and seven years old, and the other six were adult staff members. Earlier that day, before driving to the school, Lanza fatally shot his mother at their Newtown home. As first responders arrived at the school, Lanza died by suicide, shooting himself in the head.

The incident is the deadliest mass shooting in Connecticut history, and the deadliest mass shooting at an elementary school in U.S. history. It is also the second deadliest school shooting in the U.S, and the fourth-deadliest mass shooting overall.^[a] The shooting prompted renewed debate about gun control in the United States, including proposals to make the background-check system universal, and for new federal and state gun legislation banning the sale and manufacture of certain types of semi-automatic firearms and magazines which can hold more than ten rounds of ammunition.

A November 2013 report issued by the Connecticut State Attorney's office concluded that Lanza acted alone and planned his actions, but provided no indication why he did so, or why he targeted the school. A report issued by the Office of the Child Advocate in November 2014 said that Lanza had Asperger syndrome and as a teenager had depression, anxiety, and obsessive-compulsive disorder, but concluded that they had "neither caused nor led to his murderous acts". The report went on to say, "his severe and deteriorating internalized mental health problems [...] combined with an atypical preoccupation with violence [...] (and) access to deadly weapons [...] proved a recipe for mass murder."^[22]
